

A2B-online

Vacancy: Transport Manager

Who are we?

A2B-online is a logistics company where 'You' the person are key. Our employees are directly involved in the development of the organization and are able to work towards personal and business goals in an environment where respect and honesty are our base principles.

Purpose of the position:

We are looking for a Transport Manager, with previous experience in a similar role or logistics background. You will be a part of an energetic team delivering fantastic service to our clients.

Key tasks:

- Guarding the operators licence and making sure the company (including office and driving staff, driving equipment, etc.) is compliant with all TC rules and regulations at all times
- Despatch and tracking of trucks & drivers
- Daily communication with the trailer department (the "client") with regards to driver, trailer and cargo ETA's

Skills and competencies:

- Excellent communication skills
- Experience in similar role or market
- Experience in the trucking/haulage industry
- Fluent in English
- Good knowledge of IT systems
- Candidates must be able to demonstrate knowledge in UK geography, driver hours and law, trailer transport, shipping ferry/port knowledge and last but not least UK haulage market

Educational background/Work experience:

- Higher education - (graduate work - and think level)
- National CPC
- Min. 5 years working experience
- Min. 3 years industry experience (short sea ro-ro market)

We offer:

A competitive salary (level will depend on experience and entry level)

Private medical care

Fantastic working environment

Please send CV and covering letter to:
rscheyde@a2b-online.com